The priest and servers arrive at the altar and kneel. The faithful are invited to join in with the prayers in bold print.

KNEEL

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. R. Amen.

In a spirit of humility and with a contrite heart, we offer unto Thee, eternal Father, this tribute of our worship, that it may redound to Thy honor and glory, and may avail us and all faithful Christians, both living and dead, unto the forgiveness of sins and the attainment of life everlasting.

V. It behooves us to glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

R. In whom is our salvation, life, and resurrection.

 God, who in the Passion of Thy Son didst show us the path to eternal glory by the way of the cross: Graciously grant that as by our prayers we now follow Him to the place of Calvary, so we may also share His triumph with Him for all eternity. Who liveth and reigneth forever and ever. Amen.

STAND

The priest and servers then process to each Station in turn, accompanied by the verses of the Stabat Mater.

Ÿ. Surely, He hath borne our infirmities.

℞. And He hath carried our sorrows.

LET US PRAY.

KNEEL

℣. Adorámus te Christe et benedícimus tibi.

GEN

℞. Quia per sanctam crucem tuam redemísti mundum.

℣. A sword of sorrow hath pierced thy soul.

℞. And hath filled thy heart with bitter pain.

LET US PRAY.

KNEEL

℣. Adorámus te Christe et benedícimus tibi.

GEN

℞. Quia per sanctam crucem tuam redemísti mundum.

o, we have seen Him, and there is no beauty in Him, nor comeliness; He is despised and the most abject of men, a man of sorrows and acquainted with infirmity. His countenance is as it were hidden, whereupon we esteemed Him not. His appearance is inglorious among men, and His form among the children of men. And yet He is the beautiful one among all the sons of men, and by His bruises we are healed.

V. Turn not Thy face away from us.

R. And withdraw not from Thy servants in Thine anger.

GEN

℞. Quia per sanctam crucem tuam redemísti mundum.

They delivered Me into the hands of the impious, they cast Me out amongst the wicked, and they spared not My soul. The powerful gathered together against Me, and like giants they stood against Me. And striking Me with cruel words, they mocked Me.

Ÿ. But I am a worm and no man.

℞. The reproach of men and the outcast of the people.

LET US PRAY.

KNEEL

God, who by the humility of Thy Son hast lifted

GEN

℞. Quia per sanctam crucem tuam redemísti mundum.

My people, what have I done to thee, or in what have I grieved thee? Answer Me. I brought thee out of the land of Egypt, and thou hast led Me to the gibbet of the cross. Forty years I fed thee with manna in the desert, and thou hast beaten Me with blows and scourges. What more ought I do for thee that I have not done?

V. He was led as a sheep to the slaughter.

R. And He was mute as a lamb before the shearer.

LET US PRAY.

KNEEL

℣. They gave Me gall for My food.

℞. And in My thirst, they gave Me vinegar to drink.

all ye that pass by the way, stop and consider if there be any sorrow like to my sorrow; mine eyes have failed with weeping; my whole being is troubled, and my strength is poured out upon the earth, as I behold the cruel death of my Son, for the enemy hath prevailed against Him. Call me not Noemi (that is - beautiful), but call me Mara (that is - bitter), for the Almighty hath quite filled me with bitterness.

℞. But there are none to comfort her.

LET US PRAY.

KNEEL

Ave Maria.

℞. Quia per sanctam crucem tuam redemísti mundum.

LET US PRAY.

God, who in order to drive far from us the power of the enemy, didst will that Thy Son should suffer for us on the cross: Grant, we beseech Thee, that we who rejoice in honoring that same Holy Cross, may likewise everywhere rejoice in Thy loving care and obtain the grace of Resurrection. Through the same Christ our Lord.

℞. Amen.

Behold, O kind and most sweet Jesus, I cast myself upon my knees in Thy sight, and with the most fervent desire of my soul I pray and beseech Thee that Thou wouldst impress upon my heart lively sentiments of faith, hope, and charity, with true repentance for my sins and a firm desire of amendment, whilst with deep affection and grief of soul I ponder within myself and mentally contemplate Thy Five Most Precious Wounds, having before mine eyes that which the prophet David spoke of Thee, O good Jesus: They have pierced My hands and My feet; they have numbered all My bones.
